Press Release

JAMUNA DISABILITY FOUNDATION

The Foundation has announced plans to extend its activities to include the establishment of a new school in the Noida area. The decision was made after a meeting of the Foundation's management committee, which discussed the need for an additional school to accommodate the growing number of children with disabilities in the region. The new school will be located on a 5-acre plot of land donated by a local philanthropist.

The Foundation's management committee, under the chairmanship of S. Madhusudan, also discussed the need for more resources to support the Foundation's current programs. The committee agreed to seek funding from various sources, including government grants, private donations, and corporate sponsorships.

The Foundation's management committee also discussed the need for more trained staff to implement the new programs. The committee agreed to increase its staff by hiring more teachers and support staff.

The Foundation's management committee also discussed the need for more space to accommodate the growing number of children with disabilities. The committee agreed to purchase additional land to expand the Foundation's facilities.
